

Tuscarora Theatre Booster Club ("TTBC") May Newsletter

Hi Parents and Student,

First off, we would like to acknowledge Mr. Daniel for keeping the theatre kids engaged with the Murder Mystery events. He held 4 parties with 48 participants. In addition, coming June 5th, the Theater Department will broadcast its first zoom play. More details in the next few weeks.

TTBC is still exploring the possibility of an in-person End-of-Year Banquet. This banquet means a lot to the kids. It's an opportunity to acknowledge ITS points and induction, present awards for performances and, most importantly, celebrate the contributions the seniors have made to the Tuscarora Theatre Department. Seniors presenting paper plate awards to their friends is a Tuscarora tradition that we would love to continue in some form.

Here is our idea (assuming Virginia will allow gatherings of 100 by the end of July)

Save the Date – July 25th in the evening. Backup day would be August 8th

- A board member has graciously offered the use of her backyard
- Each family would bring a picnic blanket for their family's use
- We'd space the blankets appropriately to meet social distancing requirements
- Each family would be responsible for any required masks as mandated by Virginia
- Each family would be responsible for their own food and drinks
- Senior gifts, awards and Jekyll and Hyde t-shirts will be placed on a table for pickup. No customary hand shake and presentation
- We hope to limit the ceremony to a maximum of 2 hours
- To meet any Virginia requirements on gatherings, the ceremony might just be for students or students and one parent
- Attendance is strictly voluntary. If you choose not to attend, awards and t-shirts will be held and given out in the 2020/2021 school year.

TTBC would like to thank our retiring board members

Lauren Klemm –	Thank for you guidance and helping the new board get its footing
Shelley Butler –	Thanks for your contribution as Treasurer
Brooke Josties –	Thanks for your imaginative and fun concessions this year
Tami Koerner –	Thanks for your creativity ordering great merchandise for the kids to remember their time at Tuscarora.

We will welcome our new board member in next month's newsletter
